

GIVE THE CHANCE!

NAME OF THE GAME:

GIVE THE CHANCE!

THEME:

Equality (from Children's rights)

COMPLEXITY:

The game is appropriated for children from 8 to 11 years old

GROUP SIZE:

At least two children

TIME:

1 - 2 school hours

RELATED THEMES/RIGHTS:

- solidarity
- justice
- citizenship
- freedom
- dignity

OBJECTIVES:

- to educate children about children's right in general
- to develop the sense for equality and mutual respect.

MATERIALS:

- working surface
- printed and plasticized cards

PREPARATION:

Educate pupils about CHILDREN'S RIGHTS; each child's right should be explained and associated with a drawing of a memory card.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Pairs of drawings (cards) do not contain the same drawing. Their parity is based on equality from children's rights.

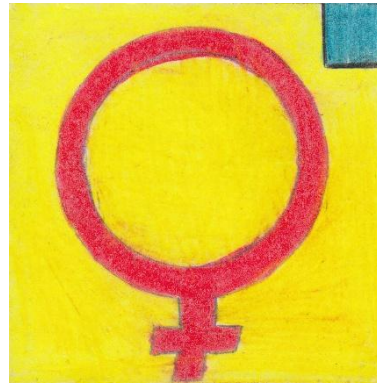

For example: The pair for gender equality

Every pair of drawings has the same colour of the square positioned in one angle of the card in order to associate the cards more easily.

Explanation of card pairs in accordance with the colour in the card's angle:

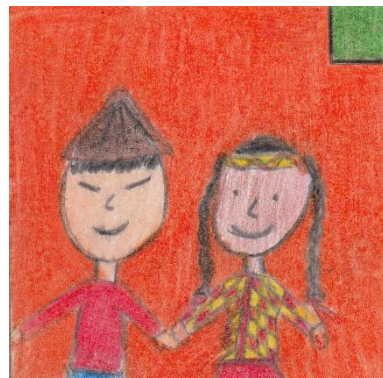

BLUE SQUARE: all children are equal by gender

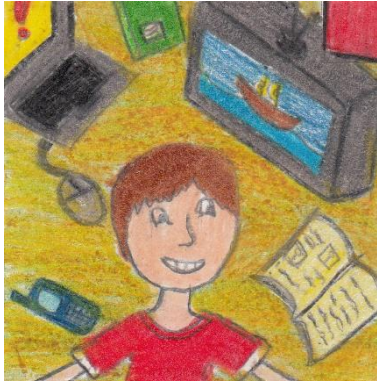

PINK SQUARE: all children have the same right to nutritious and appropriate food

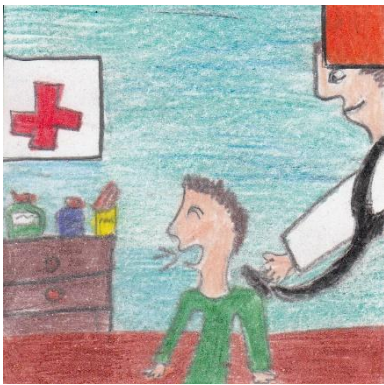

GREEN SQUARE: all children are equal regardless of their sex, race, colour, etc.

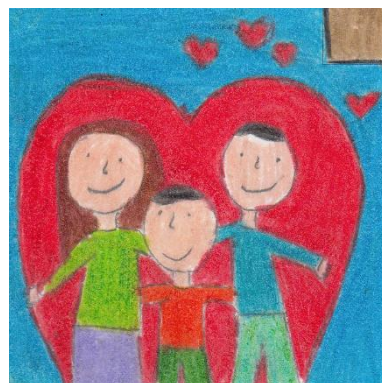

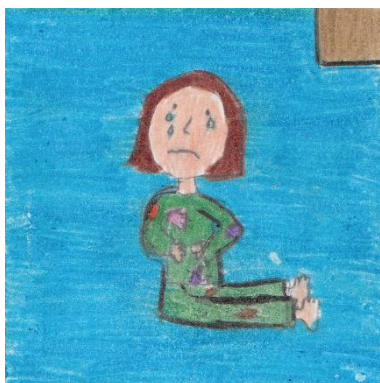

RED SQUARE: every child has the right to get information

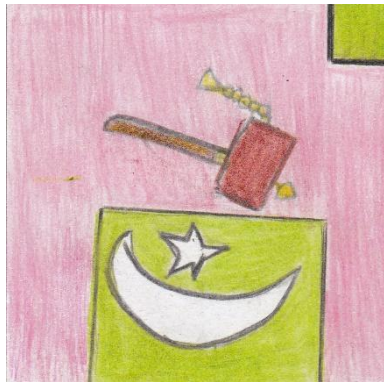

ORANGE SQUARE: all children have the same right to health care

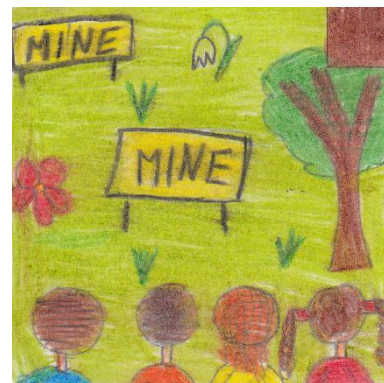

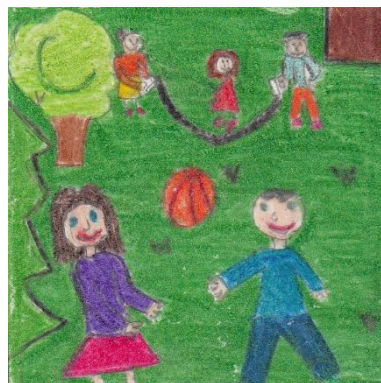

GOLDEN SQUARE: all children have the right to love and to family life

LIGHT-GREEN SQUARE: all children are equal regardless of their religion

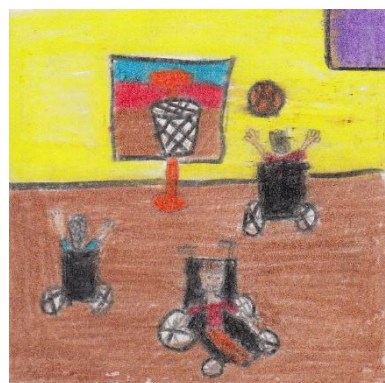

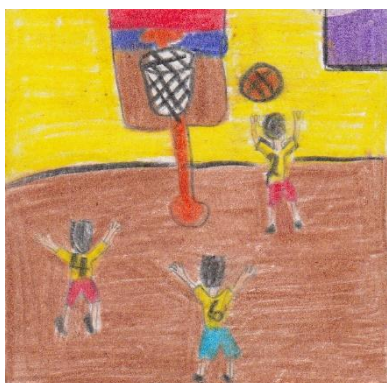

BROWN SQUARE: every child has the same right to a safe and happy childhood

YELLOW SQUARE: all children have the same right to express their opinion

PURPLE SQUARE: children with disabilities equally partake in all activities (cultural, sport, entertainment, etc.)

BLACK SQUARE: every child has the same right to leisure activities and he/she must not be forced to work

GREY SQUARE: every child has the same right to education
